THIS AND THAT

Blood bank inaugurated

First fully equipped, ultramodern Blood Bank for the city of Gurgaon was inaugurated by Deputy Commissioner of Gurgaon, Rakesh Gupta. Speaking at the Inaugural function of Ch. Ved Ram Nagar Blood Bank at Paras Hospitals, Gupta said that the long standing desire of the residents of Gurgaon of having a fully equipped blood bank in the city has been fulfilled. On this occasion, a blood donation camp was also organized.There was a lot of enthusiasm amongst the donors, 75 units of blood was collected in the camp.

The occasion was graced by Surinder Nagar, MLC, Chairman - Paras Group of Companies. Nagar said that "Late Ch Ved Ram Nagar always had the interests of the downtrodden close to his heart. We have accomplished one of his unfulfilled dreams in setting up this blood bank."